

Collaboratory Methods for Heritage

WORKSHOP SESSION

11.00–16.00

Location: Aalto Studios, Otakaari 7, Meeting Room 283 & Studio Kipsari

About

In the Collaboratory Workshop we build on our traditions of interdisciplinary collaboration between Art, Humanities and Science.

Schedule

TIME	ACTIVITY
Presentations	11:00–13:00
Lunch	13:00–14:00
Collaborative Workshop	14:30–16:00

Presenters

Vladimir Ivanov

“Using AR technologies in cultural heritage and in medical visualization.”

St.Petersburg State Polytechnical University, Russia.

Alma Leora Culén and Katie Coughlin

“Exhibiting Speculative Installations Concerned with Current Social Issues at Events for Children.”

University of Oslo and Oslo Children’s Museum.

Irina Shapiro

“The Art and Science of a Narrative. Narrative as a Ground for Hybrid Practices.”

Open Set Foundation, The Netherlands.

Akira Sano, Tomoyasu Yoshitomi, Kenichi Masaki and Hisanobu Satoh

“How we designed “just right” traveling exhibitions.”

Kyusyu Sangyo University, Tokyo Gakugei University and Japan’s Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism.

Neha Sayed

“Open narratives: Narrative as collaborative co-creation.”

Aalto University, Department of Media.

To Prepare

We request that you bring an artefact (tangible or intangible) that you know well, or that you are associated with, or that you wish to explore. It can be an image, a story, a text or an actual product.

Chairs

Neha Sayed and Lily Díaz-Kommonen